

EHFCN WEBINAR

How to enhance integrity in the health sector in changing societies: watching with patients' eyes. Patients' expectations and profitable moral hazards

Short description

- Following our 14th EHFCN International Conference of 18 and 20 October 2021, join our EHFCN Ideathon Webinar "How to enhance integrity in the health sector in changing societies"!
This Webinar will address one main theme: empowering patients to take the lead in their health care

Defined goals

- Fraud and corruption risk analysts, in the field of health services, often work in de-contextualized scenarios, where relationship between doctors and patients lies in the background of organizational vulnerabilities and lack of rules. The webinar will offer insights and concrete suggestions on how to strengthen role perception on both sides and build ecological relationships.

Speaker

- Founder of Spazioetico, a professional association of researchers and trainers in the field of integrity, anticorruption and ethics. Spazioetico (Ethical Space) aims at taking a broader view on relational and ethical component of corruption risk. Through work dynamics and real-case scenarios, Spazioetico has built a solid model of observation and interpretation of corruption which involves interests dynamics (conflict of interests and interests alignment), context analysis and integrity management.
